

Mahuron Education Grants and Elliott Family Fund Grants
2022

Applicant	School	Grade Level	Project	Amount Awarded
Tara Kennedy	EWES	5	Why Does Matter Matter? – Students will learn about Matter and its properties through a six-week unit that implements topics such as matter, elements, atoms, chemical/physical changes, chemical reactions, and conservation of matter.	$470.83
Stacy Richardson	EWES	K-4	Be a Busketeer! – Partnering NHS students at the high school with an elementary student that rides the same bus to utilize the ride time for extra review on sight words, letters and sounds, reading fluency, and math facts a few days each week.	$280.00
Caitlin Ellis	SMS	6-8	Small Group Counseling Tool Kit – small groups to allow students to connect with one another, learning from each other and building relationships, share feelings, develop self-esteem through participation while practicing empathy.	$200.00
Angela Snelling	SMS	8	Document Camera – utilize the camera to increase the material size for the items in the teacher textbook.	$239.00

Michelle Guthrie	EWES	K-4	The Ultimate PE Class – purchase of a sound system and equipment to fill the gymnasium with music to teach students line dancing and aerobics utilizing resistance bands. Other equipment purchases include football, badminton, etc...	$500.00
Emily Johnson	BSE	K-5	Dream Design Create – collaboration between the two STEAM classrooms to encourage creativity, critical thinking, and entrepreneurship by utilizing design software to create a tangible item to be used and distributed throughout the school.	$350.00
Crystal Mikels	BSE	K-5	Dream Design Create – collaboration between the two STEAM classrooms to encourage creativity, critical thinking, and entrepreneurship by utilizing design software to create a tangible item to be used and distributed throughout the school.	$350.00
Brandan Bergdall	WWHS	7	Classroom Library Seating Project – WW Ag. Class to build sectional couches for a 7 th grade classroom library. Students building the furniture will learn shop safety, proper tool usage, measuring, painting/finishing techniques to provide space	$397.28 for independent reading for a 7 th grade classroom.

Shelby Thomas	EWMS	7-8	Middle School Broadcast Media Project – purchase materials to provide students access to begin broadcast media productions.	$396.41
WW 4 th Grade Teachers	WWES	4	STEM Bins – provide materials for more hands-on activities during math and science. The bins will be shared amongst the grade level for whole-group and small-group learning with an emphasis on STEM activities.	$500.00
Micah Gilliam	EWES	2	Rocket Math – purchase of an online math program to better learn basic math facts by memory and become fluent in them.	$92.00
Samantha Green	SHS	10-12	Field Study of Invasive Species and Water Samples – field study project to collect water and soil samples as well as studying invasive species within the county. Students will conduct experiments, log data while using the scientific method.	$352.64
WW 5 th Grade Teachers	WWES	5	North by Northwest to Find “area 51 or its Perimeter – engage students in activities that will improve mapping and math skills	$425.00 while working together to solve problems involving the use of compasses, metal detector, and measuring wheel.

Rosie Morehaus	WWJH	7-8	Therapeutic Benefits of Art: Painting for a Purpose – teach students therapeutic benefits of painting and art therapy as a method of self-care and self-rejuvenation.	$500.00
Laura Purlee	EWMS	5	Solar Ovens – making solar ovens out of pizza boxes to explain how energy is transferred by the Sun to Earth through radiation and constructing a device that uses that radiation to convert it to heat.	$185.00
Chris Catlin	SMS	8	Animal Development and Agricultural Electrical Career Development – Purchase of Electrical Circuit Kits, Incubator and Brooder.	$500.00
Debbie Mishler	EWES	K-4	Outdoor Education Area – purchase of bushes, thermometer, wind sock, and bird feeding stations for students to view and learn about changing weather.	$178.00
Lorie Campbell	BSE	3	Boogie Board Writing! – Purchase of rewrite boards to encourage student growth through a variety of multisensory techniques. fund.	$449.75