

Mahuron Education Grants
Mahuron Grant Cycle, 2023

Applicant	School	Grade Level	Project	Amount Awarded
Laura Purlee	EWES	5	Dissecting Owl Pellets – Students will identify owl pellet contents, record and analyze data and discuss the food chain and predator/prey relationship.	$275.00
Charles Adams	EWMS	5-8	EWMS Emotional Disabilities Room – Reading comprehension resources that include current events, art, science, and geography. Headphones to listen to audio books as well as standardized testing, blacklight strip and glow-in-the-dark paint for painting project including the opportunity for students to design the wall, pencil bundle.	$500.00
Jessica Morgan	SMS	6-8	Green Screen Room – paint a room in the STEAM lab allowing students to produce videos about the content they are studying in their core classes allowing students to be creative and engaged in learning.	$471.94
Crystal Mikels	BSE	K-5	From 3D Design to Laser Cutter – Help to purchase equipment that will allow students to learning about 3D design and think critically about those	$500.00

			designs to push themselves to better learn the programs. With the purchase of equipment, students will see their design from start to finish while preparing students with computer and programming skills as well as teamwork, collaboration, creativity, flexibility, and critical thinking. Collaborating with another teacher for the purchase.
Emily Johnson	BSE	K-5	From 3D Design to Laser Cutter – Help to purchase equipment that will allow students to learning about 3D design and think critically about those designs to push themselves to better learn the programs. With the purchase of equipment, students will see their design from start to finish while preparing students with computer and programming skills as well as teamwork, collaboration, creativity, flexibility, and critical thinking. Collaborating with another teacher for the purchase.	$500.00
Peyton Medlock	EWMS	5-8	IMPACT Bags Organization – purchase organizers in order for Special Ed. Students to obtain their materials in an easier manner in order for	$470.72 the students to be more successful in class as well as teaching them organization and responsibility.

Peggy Monroe	EWES	K	Incubator for Observing Life Cycles of Chickens – purchase a new egg incubator so students are able to visually observe eggs hatching into chick allowing them a hands-on approach to learning.	$182.99
Susan Shipman	EWES	K-4	Parachute Challenge in PE – purchase a parachute allowing students to engage in dynamic activities that foster team cooperation, listening, motor skills, mental focus, and self-esteem.	$250.00
Kayla Moore	EWES	K-4	Classroom Family – purchase a photo printer for a self-contained classroom for emotional and social needs students allowing them to print the pictures they have drawn and showcase the classroom community providing a positive outlet for coping skills and to reflect upon happy and positive memories they have created.	$500.00
Melissa Nicholson and Veronica Bays	WWES	4-6	VEX IQ STEM Project – purchase VEX robotics equipment in order to build a device using advanced technology and then code it	$400.00 to move autonomously utilizing critical thinking to problem solve and adapt the robot to meet the requirements of the project.

Jennifer Anderson	EWES	Pre-K	The Power of Outdoor Play – Purchase new riding toys for the Pre-K playground helping to improve balance, strengthen core muscles, and improving overall coordination.	$477.94
Maria Burks and Michael Dockery	WW	K-12	Small Things That Make A Difference – purchase supplies for students in crisis situations as well as students with anxiety, depression, and anger issues to assist those students in their self-expression to help develop better coping skills.	$400.00
Lesia Ellis	EWES	2	A Little SPOT of Emotion and Family Fall Pumpkin Project – Purchase of social emotional learning books and stuffed characters to allow students to learn what a variety of emotions look like and how to help handle and explain those emotions to others. Students will receive a white pumpkin to decorate based on their character of choice with their family.	$167.43