Lives YOU Have Touched.

You are making a difference through the Dolly Parton Imagination Library.

Because of You, kids like Emma are learning to love to read.

Emma was like a lot of little girls... She didn't see her Dad much, but that was OK. Her Mom tried really hard to take good care of her. She always had food to eat and a warm place to sleep. Her Grammy took care of her when her Mom was working, and that was a lot of the time. Her Mom didn't make a lot of money, so she had to work more hours. Her Mom said, "It's all about money. The more I work, the more we have, so we can eat and have a home." Emma wished her Mom didn't have to work so much.

Emma was an inquisitive little girl. She loved to learn new things. She really didn't know much about school, except that you got to ride on a big, yellow bus. That looked like a lot of fun to her.

Emma only had a few toys- a doll that had lost most of her hair, a big red ball and a hula hoop. Emma loved her hula hoop, because she was so good at it and her Mom and Grammy definitely were not. They always made her laugh when they tried it.

Emma had one book. It was about a boy named Sam who loved green eggs and ham. She could not imagine ever eating green eggs. That sounded terrible! But she loved her book and her Mom read it to her every night. She had it memorized. Well, most of it anyway. When her Mom worked late and Emma stayed over with Grammy, there were no books to read. But that was OK because Emma had memorized her book and on those nights she "read" it to Grammy.

This is where donors like you came into Emma's life. Thanks to generous donors like you, Emma was enrolled in the Dolly Parton Imagination Library. You, and donors like you, are mailing a book every month to children in Washington County, many of whom are just like Emma. You are mailing over 1,000 books a month!

Emma used to think that going to kindergarten was scary because she didn't know what to expect.... Until one day. One day her Mom found out about the Dolly Parton Imagination Library and signed Emma up. All of a sudden, Emma was getting books in the mail. She couldn't believe it! All these books were for her! Her first book was "The Little Engine That Could." She loved it. She could not wait for her Mom to read it to her. It was her new favorite book.

Then more books came! Emma was so excited. She loved her new books and would carry them with her wherever she went. And, each month, the book she got in the mail was her new favorite. Her new books taught her different colors, how to count, and even the alphabet! One book taught her to talk in Spanish! Emma never went anywhere without a book!

One day, Emma received a book called "Kindergarten

Here I Come!” It was her last book in the mail, but that was OK, because Emma was ready for Kindergarten and a whole new world of learning. She could start her first day of school ready to learn.

Thank you for entering Emma’s life and opening up a whole new world to her. Emma loves books and can’t wait to learn to read. Thank you for instilling a love of reading in her life and hundreds of children like her.

Since 2015, donors supporting the Dolly Parton Imagination Library have given away over 59,000 books to young children in Washington County. That’s a lot of books! Thank you to all our generous donors who make this program possible.

If you would like to sponsor a child like Emma, let us know. Annual sponsorship for one child is only $26.00.

When someone you love becomes a memory, their memory becomes a treasure.
